OPERATION CORPORATE

ITEM 1. INTELLIGENCE

1. SIR TERENCE LEWIN invited the Deputy Chief of the Defence Staff (Intelligence) to update them on current intelligence.
2. LIEUTENANT GENERAL GLOVER (Deputy Chief of the Defence Staff (Intelligence)) reviewed the intelligence published in the latest summary (1). In subsequent discussion the following points were made:
 - a. The Foreign and Commonwealth Office intended to summon the Israeli Ambassador to make a formal protest about the supply of arms and equipment by Israel to Argentina.
 - b. US Secretary of State Haig had already been asked to warn the Argentines informally that their submarines would be considered hostile by our forces and therefore not to approach them. He could be reminded that the Argentines should try to avoid contact while diplomatic negotiations were still under way, but it would be impractical and dangerous to cancel the SSN Rules of Engagement.

ITEM 2. OWN FORCES

3. The situation was set out in the Force Tote Sitrep (2). The Committee were informed that OD(SA) had agreed that morning to authorise Rule of Engagement 5 for all our SSNs involved in Operation CORPORATE.
4. In discussion the following points were agreed:
 - a. They would instruct the Assistant Chief of the Defence Staff (Operations) to inform the Task Force Commander of the British Antarctic

Survey (BAS) agreement to all BAS personnel being concentrated at Grytviken and then being evacuated from South Georgia, under arrangements to be made by the Task Force.

b. In the light of legal advice from the Foreign and Commonwealth Office that a state of hostilities existed between UK and Argentina, all prisoners should be classified under the Geneva Convention as Prisoners of War, contrary to their agreement at their previous meeting (3).

c. They would wish to invite the Assistant Under Secretary (Defence Staff) to prepare a brief for the Secretary of State about the incident (4) involving an Argentine Prisoner of War the previous night. While the incident should be played in as low a key as possible, the Geneva Convention obliged us to provide the names of all Prisoners of War and also to report any such incident to the Protecting Power as soon as possible. There were also questions of the type of work which Prisoners of War could be ordered to undertake, which should also be covered in the brief.

d. They would wish to invite the Defence Secretariat to circulate the legal advice received from the Foreign and Commonwealth Office on the position of the repatriated Royal Marines in relation to their future participation in the Operation.

ITEM 3. PUBLIC RELATIONS

5. MR McDONALD (Deputy Chief of Public Relations) reported on press coverage. In discussion the need to maintain a satisfactory balance in statements by members of the Armed Forces was stressed. While an embargo on such statements might be superficially attractive it was unlikely to be effective and could be counter-productive.

6. In discussion the following points were agreed:

a. They would wish to invite the Defence Secretariat to prepare a brief for Ministers on the latest situation regarding Chile, since it was likely that some details would soon become known to the Press.

b. They would wish to invite the Deputy Chief of Public Relations to coordinate with the Foreign and Commonwealth Office the release of sufficient facts about the task and equipment of the submarine Santa Fe, in order to counter suggestions that she had been on a peaceful resupply mission.

ITEM 4. ACTIONS AND DECISIONS REQUIRED

7. The Committee noted the summary of Actions in Hand (4) and the Forecast of Decisions Required (5).

8. In discussion the following points were made:

a. It would be essential, before the Carrier Battle Group arrived in the Exclusion Zone, to resolve the intelligence, legal and presentational problems involved in declaring as naval auxiliaries any vessels identified as conducting surveillance operations. A warning period of at least 24 hours would be required after suitable Rules of Engagement had been agreed.

b. OD(SA) would decide the next day whether to announce the creation of a Total Exclusion Zone, and whether to order the Amphibious Force to sail from Ascension Island.

c. If a serious threat to Ascension Island were to develop, an Exclusion Zone around it could only be enforced by an unacceptable diversion of resources from the main Task Force.

ITEM 5. THE ARGENTINE AIRCRAFT CARRIER

9. The Committee had before them a Note (6), examining the threat posed by the Argentine aircraft carrier.

10. Sir HENRY LEACH said the carrier posed the greatest threat to our Amphibious Force before that force came under the air cover which the Carrier Battle Group could provide. The 500 nautical miles operating range of Super Etendards would, once they were embarked, make it very difficult to determine when the threat would materialise; it was therefore essential to neutralise that threat from the outset. The safety of our own ships required the ability for immediate pre-emptive action once attack was threatened; this would not be possible if such action was subject to the inevitable delays in decision making in London and in the subsequent transmission of orders to the SSNs. A decision would be needed by Monday 3 May on the action to be taken against the carrier, and whether the Argentines should be made aware of it.

11. In discussion the following points were made:

a. SIR EDWIN BRAMALL said he would not wish to be associated with a military decision to sink the carrier without warning before she had committed a hostile act or approached our Task Force.

b. MR WRIGHT (Foreign and Commonwealth Office) said there could be legal problems in declaring presumed hostile intent at ranges as great as 500 miles.

c. If a Zone as envisaged in the Note (6) were introduced, the carrier would in effect have a sanctuary from which she could present a permanent threat.

12. Summing up, SIR TERENCE LEWIN said they would wish to instruct the Assistant Chief of the Defence Staff (Operations), in conjunction with the Defence Secretariat, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Task Force Commander, to prepare for their consideration at their meeting the next day a draft OD(SA) paper setting out the nature, range and timing of the threat posed by the aircraft carrier; the options available to the Task Force Commander to protect the Amphibious Force; the means of reducing the threat either by authorising pre-emptive attacks or by declaring special zones; the advantages and disadvantages of giving a warning of our intentions; and action to be taken in respect of survivors of any attack.

ITEM 6. OPERATION SUTTON - FOLLOW UP FORCES

13. SIR TERENCE LEWIN said they would wish to discuss the possible requirement for follow up forces additional to those already allotted to Operation SUTTON.
14. SIR EDWIN BRAMALL said that no case had yet been made for the provision of extra forces, either to break out of any bridgehead or subsequently to repossess the islands. He foresaw that the Landing Force might need relief eventually when any long term garrison was considered, but this was a different matter. If follow up forces were required, they were trained and would be ready to move subject to the availability of shipping. If the Queen Elizabeth 2 were to be used, the passage from UK to the Falkland Islands would take approximately 15 days, and he understood that the first suitable sailing date would be 3/5 May. The present notice of the troops was adequate.
15. In discussion the following points were made:
- a. As had been brought out in their earlier discussion (7), it would be difficult to determine the force requirements for any operations after the initial landing before that landing had been made and up to date tactical intelligence was available. Until then they would only be able to form a preliminary view on the need for any additional troops.
 - b. There might be supply problems if the force level were to be increased significantly.
16. Summing up, SIR TERENCE LEWIN said it was too early to bring forward the concept for follow-up operations which they had asked (7) the Task Force Commander to develop, and on which any assessment of additional troops would have to be based. They would, however, wish to keep the matter under regular review.

ITEM 7. ANTI-RADIATION MISSILES

17. The Committee agreed to invite the Air Force Department to prepare a paper on Anti-Radiation Missiles for their consideration at their meeting the next day.

Note by the Secretary

This item was subsequently withdrawn (8).
