COMMUNIQUE N° 3

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE POPULATION

As a consequence of all the necessary actions taken, and in order to ensure the safety of the population, all people are to remain at their homes until further notice. New instructions will be issued.

The population must bear in mind that, in order to ensure the fulfillment of these instructions, military troops shall arrest all people found outside their homes.

To avoid inconveniences and personal misfortunes, people are to abide by the following:

1. Should some serious problem arise and people wish to make it known to the military authorities, a white piece of cloth is to be placed outside the door. Military patrols will visit the house so as to be informed and provide a solution.
2. All Schools, Shops, Stores, Banks, Pubs and Clubs are to remain closed until further notice.
3. All infringements shall be treated according to what is stated in EBICT NS 1.
4. All further instructions shall be released through the local broadcasting station, which shall remain in permanent operation.
