 - d. A question and answer feature about the Geneva Convention.
 - e. Argentine propaganda (based on an article in the Financial Times).
 - f. Senor Costa Mendes at the Non-Aligned Nations meeting in Havana.
 - g. Two features based on articles from Spanish magazines, one relating an interview with an Argentine soldier captured on South Georgia and the other from YA magazine about Britain's successful decolonisation policies.

Reception

3. The pattern of jamming now appears to have been established with the morning broadcast relatively free and maximum effort being made during the evening show. Argentine jamming facilities are clearly working at full stretch endeavouring to cover the whole country and a variety of other outside broadcasts. It is therefore of interest that they continue to put such stress on jamming Radio Atlantico del Sur. Fortunately only jammers based on the Falklands themselves could do the job completely effectively.
