Reception/Feedback

3. Signal strength in the target area continues to be satisfactory despite attempts to jam the evening broadcasts and competition from Radio El Mundo in the mornings. The Argentine authorities have now confirmed that Radio Nacional Malvinas has closed down, leaving Radio Atlantico Del Sur as the only station to transmit material specifically targeted at their forces in the Falklands.
4. Listener response is modest but growing. Letters and record requests have been received from countries as far apart as Uruguay and Germany, Australia and Brazil. Programme content was reported (without comment) by the independent Argentine press agency 'Noticias Argentinas'. This agency was subsequently closed down on the orders of the junta.
