10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

Chapman.
Selwyn May

Dear Stephen,

Forgive me for not having written before this to say thank you for entertaining us at Milton last weekend. A glimpse of the house has only whetted my appetite to see more - it is a wonderful part of our heritage.

It was very kind of Lady Fitzwilliam to stay up so late to sl entertain us. It is wonderful to talk to her. She knows a life we never knew.

I left knowing that we had a tense day ahead. The phone call over breakfast indicated that the air-strips at Port Stanley had been bombed by the Vulcans successfully.

During the last week - there has been an activity and tension I never thought to experience - but this has happened throughout history and it falls to us to make our contribution to liberty under the law.

Yours ever
Margaret
